Name _____   Date _____

Dreamweaver 8 Project 3 – Short Answer

Instructions: Fill in the best answer.

1.   _____ is the process of arranging the text, images, and other elements on the page.

2.   The _____, generally located at the top of the page, can contain logos, images, or text that identifies the Web site.

3.   In _____, a table is presented as a grid of rows and columns.

4.   A(n) _____ is the container created when the row and column in a table intersect.

5.   If the _____ property is selected for text and the text will not fit within the cell, the cell and table will expand to accommodate the text.

6.   To span across two cells in one row, the HTML tag would be <td

        _____ = "2">cell content</td>.

7.   The _____ command specifies the width, in pixels, of the line that frames the table and its various parts.

8.   When using _____, you are creating the framework for the entire table.

9.   To prepare a Web site and make it available for others to view requires that you _____ your site by putting it on a Web server for public access.

10.   As part of publishing and maintaining your site using Dreamweaver, you _____ the local and remote sites.