

Foundation Types

A Dadant Manufacturing Specialty

Duragilt

- Dadant researched & Dadant developed
- A plastic bonded, beeswax foundation with metal edges
- Saves Labor & is easy to use
- Plastic inner core
- Deep worker-sized cell imprints
- Precision milled
- No additional cross wires needed
- Communication holes located on bottom lower corners of foundation

Medium Brood

- The Original 100% pure beeswax foundation
  - Our lowest priced foundation
  - Precision even-milled deep walled cells
  - Not affected by weather conditions
  - Pure beeswax sheet
- (We recommend cross-wiring frames with medium brood foundation)

Crimp Wired

- Developed by Dadant & Sons
  - Copied by other, but unequalled
  - 9 vertical crimped steel wires radiate strength
  - Perfectly milled cells deep exact walls
- (We recommend adding cross wires in deep frames)

Cut Comb & Thin Surplus

- Finest comb honey foundation
- 100% beeswax
- Cutcomb is slightly heavier than thin surplus for easier handling
- Cut comb used for chunk honey

Foundation Types Cont.

Thin Surplus

- The thinnest beeswax sheet for finest comb honey.
- Thin surplus for square and round section comb honey
- Your customers appreciate comb honey with Dadant foundation

Plasticell

- Injected molded plastec
- Raised-cell sheet
- The best plastic foundation available, tested and proven
- The ultimate in plastic foundation -precise and uniform deep cell walls.
- Available beeswax coated (unique uniform spray) or uncoated. (beeswax coated is recommended)

Plastiframe/Foundation combo

- 1 Piece plastic frame and foundation
- No assembly
- Strong
- No wiring
- Durable
- Not affected by weather conditions
- Standard size 9 1/8"
- Wax moth cannot damage base
(Frames packed 20 per carton)